News Release:
April 20, 2017
Chief Katie McMillin

At approximately 7:20 p.m. on April 19, 2017, Foley Police Officers responded to an attempted robbery at the McDonald's in Foley. The female was wearing blue jeans, a purple sweatshirt with a pink shirt underneath, and sunglasses. The female was said to be a slender Caucasian in her mid-30s, approximately 5'5" with curly dark hair.

The female entered McDonald's and requested to speak with the manager. The female then advised the manager that he was to empty out the safe for her. The manager refused and attempted to give the female food or drinks instead. The female had threatened to kill everyone in the store multiple times. The female did not display or make any movement that she had a firearm during this incident.

Prior to leaving the female began to joke about it and stated that she was a reporter. The female then left McDonald's on foot. When Officers arrived they did not locate the female matching the description. It is believed the female may have left in a white car that was in the area.

Foley Police Department believes the public is not in any danger.

The Foley Police Department is asking for the public's assistance in identifying this female. If you have any information in regards to this incident or can identify this female, please contact the Police Department at 320-968-0800 or Benton County Dispatch at 320-968-7201.
