Swimming Lessons 2022

Session 1: June 19 – June 30

Session 2: July 10 - 21

Session 3: July 24 – Aug. 4

- Lessons run 10 days during session weeks; 8 days of lessons are needed to meet Red Cross requirements. The extra two days are for possible weather cancellations. Please plan on attending all 10 days.
  - ◆ Level 1 - 6 are 50-minute classes.
  - ◆ Preschool 1, Preschool 2, and Parent/Child are 25-minute classes.

- Patrons with children enrolled in Level 1 through Level 6 will need to watch lessons from outside the fence. (You may help your child change and shower, but you will be asked to remain outside the fence during the lesson).
- Patrons with children in Preschool 1 or Preschool 2 are able to sit inside the fence to help with bathroom trips if necessary.
- Swim goggles are not provided for lessons. You may bring goggles to wear, but they should not cover the nose (NO scuba goggles).

Safety Day is always the Monday of the second week of lessons.

- Levels 1- 3 are asked to bring a life jacket on Safety Day to review life jacket safety.
- Levels 4 - 6 are asked to bring a lifejacket and a pair of sweatpants and a long sleeve shirt to see what it's like to swim fully clothed.
